LETTER NO. 6 (SIX)

3 March 1952

Begin. My friends and I are very well. We received a letter dated 12 January from you gentlemen, in which you tell us that you have sent us packages and money. To this date we have received neither packages or money. We beg of you please tell us the name of the friend to whom they were sent. We believe any word that you people tell us and we are doing our best. The comments of the HTNeigh radio are not heard. We beg you tell them to regulate themselves. Regards from our hearts.
